

Good afternoon SJS Community,

Next week, one of the pinnacle events of the year will occur on Wednesday at 2:00 pm in the St. Oscar Romero Church when Grade 4 presents their Living Stations of the Cross. This event is open to our entire extended community and is a moving experience during Holy Week. If you have never attended, this is a special event for our school and a true St. John School experience. If you have attended before, you know, and are welcome back. As a reminder, this is a solemn, quiet event for our school and visitors.

Another pinnacle event of the year – our High School Reveal has been postponed from this Monday until Monday, April 28. At this event, our students share their high school choices.

A few notes as we end this week -

-The Father-Daughter Dance is tonight! Have a wonderful time to all our dads, daughters, and special people. Thank you to Mallory Dion-Mallon and Katie Sykes for running this special event.

-The SJS Scholastic Book Fair returns next week. Click here for a flyer. Monday is a preview day for students. They may purchase books on Tuesday and Wednesday during the school day. The Fair is open to the public for purchase during the following times:

-Monday, 4/14 - After School: 3:00 – 4:30p

-Tuesday, 4/15 - Before School: 8:00 – 9:00a

-Wednesday, 4/16 - Before School: 8:00 – 9:00a and After School: 3:00 – 4:30p

-Report Cards for Term 3 are now available on FACTS.

-Mite Boxes are due back to the Main Office by Wednesday. You can also return them to St. Oscar Romero Church during Holy Week.

-There is no NJHS tutoring on Thursday, April 17

-The turf and playgrounds of St. John School are closed after the school day ends each day. There are liability issues with using these spaces beyond school hours and we may need them for clubs or aftercare. The Mary Garden, next to the Church, is open each day after school.
