

Good afternoon SJS Community,

Thank you again to everyone who worked on and/or attended the SJS Gala last weekend. A fantastic time was had by all. We will be sharing some amazing fundraising results soon.

One last Gala note – The Gala Committee has opened Chic-Fil-A Day to people who did not attend the Gala or forgot to purchase on Saturday. If you want to purchase a Chic-Fil-A lunch for your child on April 9th, Venmo SJS $20 per child with the note Chic-Fil-A Day and your child's name. Venmo's must be received by Thursday, April 3.

Thank you to everyone who attended our Basketball Celebration last night. We were able to celebrate an extremely successful season, culminating with our Grade 5 Boys team winning the St. John Attleboro Tournament. Thank you to all our coaches. They give so much to our program and their passion and love shine through. Thank you also to Mrs. Novogratz for coordinating everything – I am not sure you realize how much time and organization it takes – and to Jen Millington for keeping our Snack Shack filled.

Basketball uniforms need to be turned in to Mrs. Novogratz or Mr. Hall by Friday, April 4. Please remember to wash them before they are returned. Putting them in a bag with your child's name is a best practice.

Spring Clubs begin on Monday so there is still time to sign up. Click here for a sign up.

Warm Weather Uniforms return on Tuesday, April 1. This basically means that shorts are allowed. This is a great time to review our dress code as some students have started to bump up against our guidelines. Please pay attention to the policies around shoes and socks/tights with shorts and skorts. Click here for the SJS Dress Code.

On Friday, we will have our monthly school Mass, which will be led by Grade 2. We are blessed to also celebrate five St. John School Community baptisms. This is a special moment not only for these families but also for our school community. It will be a wonderful celebration of faith. As always, we invite you to join us for Mass.

Mite boxes can be turned in to the Main Office starting on April 1. Please have them in by April 16.
